me: Thank Heaven!

That would have been a pain!

evanskeigan: yes that would have me: Did you get my text about the pins?

5:23 PM

evanskeigan: yes...i did

me: Is that ok with you?

evanskeigan: Yes, that is ok...we will have to make do me: Yeah it's not ideal, but it's the best we can do. The constitution gives each member three pins, so we can recognize the people and give them the actual pin later

5:24 PM

5:25 PM

evanskeigan: that works for me

me: So how are things for the conference going?

5:26 PM

evanskeigan: Pretty good actually...We will be working on getting all the tshirts and stuff together this week and monday

5:27 PM

besides the delegation changes from a few of the schools last minute things are going pretty good

there are 13 schools including gsw that will be in attendance

me: That's great!

That's a good number

evanskeigan: i've only got a check from one school though so far...haha

5:28 PM

me: Haha I'm thinking that most people are bringing their checks....i hope

I know we are

So how have you been paying for stuff?

evanskeigan: I hope so as well...

5:29 PM

me: Have you had a problem for paying for stuff?

5:30 PM

evanskeigan: No, it being a small town...we have a great relationship with business here...so they know that by feb 5 they will get their money me: That's fantastic! Wow

You guys are lucky

5:31 PM

evanskeigan: yep

me: Did you have a chance to look at the boardroom agenda?

Did everything look ok?

I pretty much designed it after the SAACURH Boardroom agenda

5:32 PM

evanskeigan: I didn

i didn't see a problem with it...looked good to me

me: Great!

I just hope we can get through it quick evanskeigan: we will just have to keep everyone focused and on task me: I thought that Antony Ware was running for advisor? Do you know anything about that?

5:33 PM

evanskeigan: he said he was, but i haven't heard anything else about it since saacurh me: Interesting. We're trying to get Tamara to run evanskeigan: haha...she should

5:34 PM

me: Yeah I think she'd be good.

Are any of your students interested in a position on the board?

I was really disappointed when nobody submitted a bid

5:35 PM

evanskeigan: I tried, but the good candidates are graduating in december or will be my NCC or NCCIT in the fall me: That is usually the problem. All the really passionate people are NCCs or graduating.

5:36 PM

Hopefully somebody will step up to the plate

Oh I have good news!

evanskeigan: I hope so too

me: I'm back in contact with my website buddy so we have access to our website again

I wasn't able to get ahold of him for like two months then he emailed me out of the blue

5:37 PM

evanskeigan: Awww that's AWESOME!

5:38 PM

me: Oh my gosh I can't tell you how relieved I was. I have been stressing out about that for a long time. I'm thinking we need to get a GRHO webmaster though that he can transition evanskeigan: This is true

5:39 PM

me: I'm hoping that affiliations will go well

Every school except for Savannah State filled out the contact sheet

5:40 PM

evanskeigan: jacksoq@savannahstate.edu

email their advisor Rev Jackson

5:41 PM

me: I can do that

Maybe they'll just do it all at the conference

5:42 PM

evanskeigan: he is new...so you might want to send him an email just in case he has a blackberry so it goes straight to his phone

5:43 PM

me: Ok great! I hope that they're planning on affiliating evanskeigan: me too

5:44 PM

me: Do you need anything from for the conference?

I made placards for the boardroom and I'll bring agendas and copies of the legislation and constitution evanskeigan: Not that I can think of besides a nap haha

5:45 PM

Great! Well if you think of something you need let me know and I will try to get it for you me: Haha you definitely should get a nap!

evanskeigan: i'm taking the week after GRHO off

5:46 PM

me: I totally would to! Has it been pretty stressful?

5:47 PM

evanskeigan: I'm not one to stress...but I have been busy...like last night didnt finish working on GRHO stuff till like 11pm

me: Dang! I'm sorry

evanskeigan: oh the caterer

for lunch on saturday the menu chnaged

me: Haha I can only imagine

5:48 PM

evanskeigan: it will be ribs, chicken,hamburgers,hot dogs, green beans, pork and beans and salad...and veggie burgers for the 2 ppl that need them

5:49 PM

me: Haha I don't think anybody will complain. That sounds great!

evanskeigan: haha i hope not

5:53 PM

me: Well unfortunately nobody else was able to join this chat but I'm glad we've been able to talk about this stuff

evanskeigan: I am too

5:54 PM

me: Well is there anything else we need to discuss?

evanskeigan: no sir.

5:55 PM

me: Sweet then have a great weekend and let me know if you need anything!

evanskeigan: Same here!
