4:26 PM

me: How is everyone doing?

4:27 PM

Michael: busy

4:28 PM

me: I hear you

Michael: how have you been?

4:29 PM

me: I got a lot done this weekend, but I'm tired!

evanskeigan: I m good...

me: Good to hear!

How is the GRHO Conference coming Keigan?

4:31 PM

Michael has left

4:32 PM

me: Are you still here Keigan?

4:34 PM

Michael has joined

me: Is there a problem with Gchat today?

Michael: ???

4:35 PM

me: I don't think that Keigan is here and you got kicked out

4:36 PM

evanskeigan: i'm here

me: Ok cool. Should we get started then? I don't think Cindy is coming evanskeigan: It's coming along wonderful...we are working on the tshirt design and we are sending the save the dates cards to print next week...so i can take some to GHO me: That's wonderful! Very exciting.

4:37 PM

Michael: is tracy here?

me: I'm trying to chat on the side with him but he's not responding.

4:38 PM

It looks like it's just the three of us!

Michael: okay

alrighty

me: First of all:

I have an update on the transportation to SAACURH. Unfortunately, Valdosta wasn't able to get a charter bus so the NCC at UGA is working on another option evanskeigan: how many schools have said that they were interested

4:39 PM

where is the meeting place

me: I think that 7 schools have expressed interest in carpooling, which is awesome!

I think that the meeting place is going to be Atlanta, but we are still trying to settle on a company

evanskeigan: so with 7 schools it still cost 600 dollars a school

4:40 PM

I know she sent out a price of $2250 is that per day or for the entire trip me: Yes, but it will also be according to how many people come per school. UGA will probably end up paying more because we're bringing more people as a bidding school

4:41 PM

We'll divide the cost by the number of people in attendance then times it by the delegation size of each school

Unless you all have a different idea

4:42 PM

evanskeigan: Ok so the $2250 is it per day

Michael: seems fine to me

4:43 PM

evanskeigan: When is the latest you can know...i will take it to RHA general board tonight me: I thought it was $2250 for the whole trip. I can't find the email now though.

I'll talk to our NCC tonight and see what she has come up with.

4:44 PM

It's just been difficult to coordinate with so many schools

evanskeigan: oh ok

4:45 PM

Oh i totally understand and we appreciate your NCC taking on this task me: No problem. I'll have more answers tonight hopefully and have her email all of you

4:46 PM

Is there anything else with SAACURH Transportation?

evanskeigan: ok...thanks ryan!

nope

4:47 PM

me: Ok. The website is coming along, but it doesn't look like the site will be ready for September Peach Awards. Joseph needs more time, but hopefully we can push it hard in October

But the site is looking great!

evanskeigan: ok.

4:48 PM

me: There are also pictures up on the website, we created a FAQ for affiliations and a new contact system for the exec board

It's coming along nicely!

Are there any questions or comments?

evanskeigan: Awww good job

4:49 PM

Michael: none for me...just please let me know when the site is completed so I can begin its incorporation into the newsletter

me: Of course!

4:50 PM

I guess that also covers peach awards. It's sad it won't be done for September, but I think October will be our big unveiling!

4:51 PM

Is there anything for Peach Awards?

Michael: not really I think cindy would be the only one there me: Ok! Are there any updates on our efforts to reach out to schools?

4:52 PM

evanskeigan: I'm still working on the powerpoint about RHA...my computer crashed on thursday

Michael: I unfortunately have not heard back from any of the schools that I left messages with me: Oh no! I'm sorry. Have you had any contact with Brielle from Reinhardt Keigan?

4:53 PM

That's understandable Michael. I'm thinking a lot of the colleges we are contacting don't even have RHAs

4:54 PM

evanskeigan: I sent an email, but I haven't heard anything

I will send another one when they bring back my computer

me: That sounds good.

4:55 PM

Michael: are you coming to SAACURH?

4:56 PM

I'm trying to find out what we are going to do about the state meeting in Kentucky.

Michael: I am unsure

is it the 24th

me: It's Nov 13-15

Michael: oh yea

4:58 PM

me: We need to figure out exactly what we are going to do in that meeting. We did a lot of stuff at our retreat, and I need to know what needs to be talked about it November and what can wait until January

Michael: I really don't know yet

I'll have to look at my test schedule

I think the affiliations and fees

peach awards

and the officer tenure

4:59 PM

those are most important

me: I will look through our retreat notes and see everything we did then come up with an agenda that we can look at.

I agree Michael that those are the most important

evanskeigan: i agree

good job michael

Michael: the funds available for programming and etc...might be less important me: Ok. I'll put that agenda together and then we can look at it

Michael: unless they might be necessary to get a smaller school to GRHO

5:00 PM

me: Those funds won't be available until schools affiliate so they won't be able to use them for this GRHO

5:01 PM

Michael: okay I thought that was the case but was uncertain me: Yeah. That's only because the schools who affiliate will be the only ones who can request that money.

Michael: I would also talk about electing new officers at GRHO

so they should be thinking about running

5:02 PM

me: Definitely!

I want some competition in our positions!

evanskeigan: Right!

me: Anything else y'all can think of?

5:03 PM

evanskeigan: no I think that will be enough...that state meeting time frame isn't that long me: It's only 45 minutes! We'll be scrambling for time!

We also will need to pass around a contact sheet so we can update the listserv

If there isn't anything else, we can move on. Do you have any updates on the newsletter?

5:05 PM

evanskeigan: nope

5:06 PM

Michael: not specifically. I'm just waiting on the website. Also Keigan it would be helpful to get some updates on the upcoming conference. if they want to send a summary of what can be expected or the tshirt graphic and a few pics etc

5:07 PM

evanskeigan: ok... I will pass that on to the conference chair...when do you need it

me: uh oh. It looks like he got kicked out.

I'm sure he'll be back in a second

5:08 PM

evanskeigan: ok...

5:09 PM

me: Did you have anything else to discuss Keigan?

evanskeigan: i have a 5:15 RHA meeting me: That's fine! I'll get that information from him and have him send it to you or I will evanskeigan: no...I just wanted to tell about the conference updates we have so far...the shirt and save the date cards me: I'll just tell him to email you for that stuff. Thanks for coming today!

5:10 PM

evanskeigan: no problem...see you guys in 2 weeks!

me: Thank you!
